NO WAR WITH CHILE

Is the Very Latest from Those Who Know.

COL. J. PARKER READ OF CHICAGO

Who Has Been Living in Chile, Says All Talk of War Is Bosh, and We Should Be Ashamed to Whip Chile—Egan's Appointment a Mistake.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—A Valparaiso cablegram to the Herald reads thus:

I learn on reliable authority the following important facts regarding the answer sent by Senor Matta, at the time he was minister of foreign affairs, to President Harrison's message and which was cabled to Chile's ministers in Europe and America as the provisional government's reply to the United States. It appears that at a meeting of President Montt's old cabinet, called to discuss President Harrison's message, Minister Matta was authorized to reply to it. He wrote out a document and cabled it to the Chilean minister at Washington, Senor Montt, without ever having shown it to President Montt. In spite of this omission, Minister Matta, in sending a message to Minister Egan on the same subject, states that the document was the official utterance of the Chilean government. He made a similar statement before the senate. When the truth was known it was then too late for President Montt or the other members of the cabinet to disavow the responsibility for the curt tone of the reply and at the same time avoid giving offence just then to the radical party, of which Senor Matta was leader.

Now, however, the radical party as well as the leading members of congress, are fully inclined to disavow and disown the retired minister's words. The present ministry is preparing another document as a substitute for Senor Matta's undiplomatic letter. It is stated the German emperor will be sought as an arbitrator in the Baltimore case, but that before this is accepted to by the United States an apology will be asked from the German minister, Herr Gutschmidt, for certain alleged undiplomatic proceedings on his part toward the American government's representatives. The new Chilean cruiser President Errazuriz went on a trial trip to-day with a number of government officials aboard.

Mail Orderly Bradley of the Yorktown, who disappeared mysteriously after having been sent ashore on Dec. 29 to send a cable dispatch, and who it was thought might have been killed by persons inimical to the Americans, has been heard from, and it turns out that there is a woman in the case. It is said that Bradley and the woman have left Valparaiso for some unknown place.

Talk of War Is Bosh.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—Colonel J. Parker Read, at present in this city, has been living from time to time since 1876 in Chile. In an interview he said there was no fear of war with Chile. "My wife and four children," said he, "are in the city of Valparaiso and I feel just as safe about them as though they were here in Chicago. My wife and son keep me posted upon the feeling entertained by the Chileans toward this country and I feel sure it has not changed of late. Chile is a young, bright, proud and energetic nation. Naturally enough her people love the United States as nearly akin to themselves in progress and enterprise."

"But it was a mistake to send Egan to Chile," continues Mr. Read. "There the leading men are of English birth and parentage and naturally look with disfavor on Egan. As the representative of the United States he is treated with due respect, but we cannot expect more. All talk of war, however, is bosh, and we should be ashamed to whip Chile. Humiliating it would be for us to attack Chile, and what would we gain? Chile is a proud, beautiful little country, and the United States is too big to engage in such petty business, and there is too much malice in Americans to pitch into a little country that is standing up for what it considers to be its rights. As to the Baltimore incident, the Chilean courts are investigating the affair, and we may be sure that if an apology is due us we will get it without asking. Naturally the people are our friends and look to the United States with pride as the highest exponent of civilization."

Will Await Results.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The correspondence which the president promised to congress relating to the attack upon the Baltimore sailors at Valparaiso is not to be sent in tomorrow. In fact there is reason to believe that some days will elapse before the public will know officially just what passed between the department of state and Egan on one side

A Revolving Case.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Seldom in the annals of the New York police court has there been such a revolting case heard as in the Yorkville court.

William Parrell, 21 years old, who lives with his newly-wedded wife, Mary, aged 19, in West Forty-fifth street, told the court they were awakened at 3 o'clock in the morning by some one breaking into their apartments. On the instant seven young toughs rushed into the bedroom, pulled him out of bed, and threatened him with death if he made an outcry. He broke away from them, however, and ran out to the street in his nightdress and shouted for help.

Hearing screams from his wife's room he rushed back to her assistance, only to find her struggling in the embrace of one of the thugs. Before he could reach her side, however, he was seized by several of the others, who held him and compelled him to witness a sight that cannot be described in words, for one after another would ravish her.

The poor woman fought desperately but her assailants brought her to insensibility and accomplished their purpose.

Policeman Grannon entered the house when the ruffians fled, all but one, whom the officers succeeded in capturing. He proved to be Richard Kane, 20 years old, Eleventh avenue. The officers rang for an ambulance from the Presbyterian hospital and the surgeon who accompanied it found the woman very badly injured, besides suffering greatly from nervous prostration. She declined to go to the hospital and was attended at home. She has been in an exceedingly critical condition all day.

Justice Ryan committed Kane for examination Wednesday next.

His six accomplices are not known, but the police believe all of them will be under arrest before the day set for Kane's examination.

Roger Q. Mills Coming Home.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Representative Mills has so far recovered his health as to undertake a trip to his home in Texas, whither he started yesterday, accompanied by his son. He will be absent from the city probably ten days or two weeks.

Charges Disputed.

VALPARAISO, Jan. 5.—The procurator's report on the Baltimore sailors' incident completely dispels the false charges against the police of this city of attacking the American sailors. It appears the police did not arrive on the scene until the riot reached serious proportions.

Surrendered to the Coroner.

YONKERS, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Train dispatcher Ossman and Brakeman Herrick are held responsible for the Hastings accident on the New York Central. They surrendered to the coroner and both were at once admitted to bail.

The Right to Inspect.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 5.—In the case against Recorder of Votes Ousley Judge Florer decided that the political parties had the authority to inspect the registration book.
